Join the community of social protection practitioners: become a member of socialprotection.org!

WHAT: socialprotection.org is an unbranded, online hub supported by the Development Working Group of the G20. The online platform is hosted by the International Policy Centre for Inclusive Growth (IPC-IG), and facilitated by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) of Australia and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH on behalf of the German Federal Ministry of Economic Development and Cooperation (BMZ).

WHY: As a member of socialprotection.org, you will be part of an expert knowledge-sharing platform for policymakers, researchers, academic, international organisations and civil society. You will have easy access to worldwide learning on social protection policies through its active and informed network aimed at sharing experiences.

HOW: As a member, you can discover content by searching for publications, programme profiles, members and stakeholders.

You can connect with other members by creating a new Online Community or joining an existing one, participating in the Discussion Forum or searching for Events you may wish to participate in.

You will also be able to learn more about social protection on the Virtual Campus through Online Courses and Webinars. Find out the latest News from the field, check the Glossary for key definitions, and access "How-To" guidance on social protection under Learning Tools. Visit the Blog to discover insights from socialprotection.org's global members.

Members are also welcomed to share content on the platform.

Access the platform and become a member of socialprotection.org! You can also stay informed by following our social media channels.
