

Member's Guide

Join a community of social protection practitioners: become a member of socialprotection.org!

What

socialprotection.org is an unbranded, online hub supported by the Development Working Group of the G20. The online platform is hosted by the International Policy Centre for Inclusive Growth (IPC-IG) and facilitated by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) of Australia and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ).

Why

As a member of socialprotection.org, you will be part of an expert knowledge-sharing platform for policymakers, researchers, scholars, international organisations and civil society. You will have easy access to world-class learning materials on social protection through searchable databases and free interactive online learning tools.

How

As a member, you can Discover content by searching for Publications, Programme profiles, Blog posts, News, Events and Job opportunities

You might want to Connect with other Members and Stakeholders dedicated to social protection. You can create or join an Online Community or check for updates in your Social Space.

You can also Learn more about social protection in our e-Learning section, or through our Webinars. Check the Glossary for key definitions and follow important events on social protection in our Livestream area. You may as well create or answer a Survey.

Members are also invited to Share content on the platform.

Access the platform and become a member of socialprotection.org! And stay informed by following our social media channels.
